Klove is more than just a radio station...it's a life line. with all the music that we have to choose from today and the awful lyrics it contains, we need KLOVE to remain as it is, not to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming. I know my family, as well as countless others, are better off every day by listening to the encouraging, positive music that KLOVE provides.

thank you!